

Washburn Law

By the Numbers

2018 Incoming Class Profile

115 Students 48% Female

57% Kansas Residents 52% Male

43% Nonresidents 19% Diversity*

Nonresident students in this class come from Arizona, Colorado, Florida, Hawaii, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, West Virginia, Brazil, and Canada.

* Includes self-reported racial identity, gender identity, and/or sexual orientation

Our Strengths Are Your Benefit

A- Best Value Law School
preLaw Magazine 2017

A- Trial Advocacy
preLaw Magazine 2018

#3 Government Law (Public Interest)
preLaw Magazine 2018

#14 Business, Banking, and Corporate Law
preLaw Magazine 2017

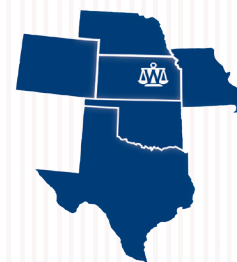

#15 Legal Writing
U.S. News & World Report 2018, 2017

7.1 : 1

Student-to-faculty ratio

100%

of students can get law practice experience through an externship or the Washburn Law Clinic.

Residents of five states qualify for in-state tuition at Washburn. Active duty and military veterans may also qualify.

Topeka is the

#9

Most Affordable Metro in the U.S.

realtor.com

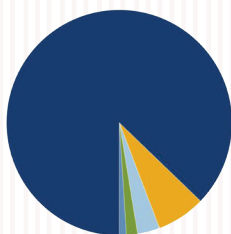

Washburn Law

By the Numbers

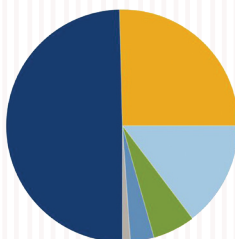

Graduate Employment

EMPLOYMENT
STATISTICS

- 87.2% Employed
- 7.0% Seeking
- 3.2% Not seeking
- 1.6% Start date deferred
- 1.0% Pursuing advanced degree

EMPLOYMENT
CATEGORIES

- 49.6% Private practice
- 25.4% Government*
- 14.7% Business and industry
- 5.9% Judicial clerkship
- 3.3% Public interest
- 1.1% Education

* Includes prosecutors and public defenders

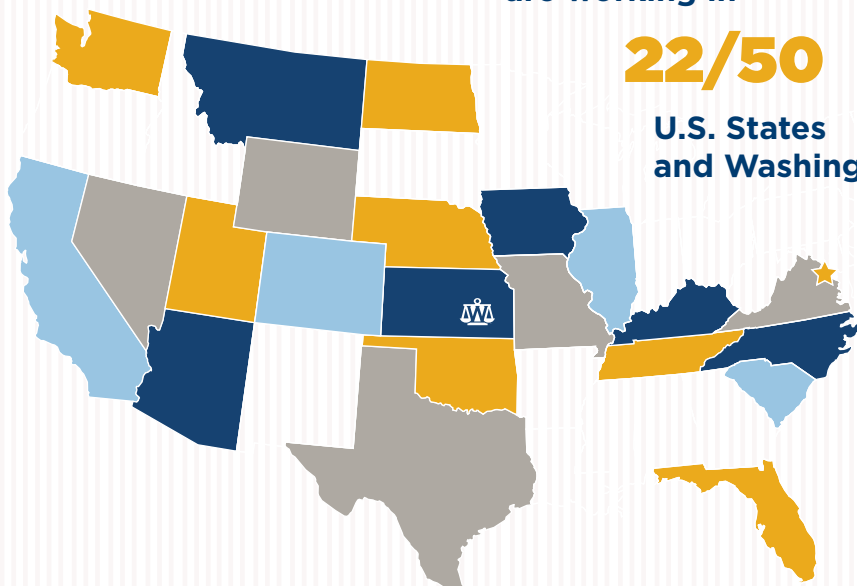

Washburn Law's 3-year averages for the classes of 2015-17 include full- and part-time, short- and long-term employment, and excludes graduates for whom employment status was unknown at the time of reporting.

For a detailed breakdown of all graduate employment outcomes, see the Official ABA Employment Summaries: washburnlaw.edu/career/statistics.

Classes of 2015 - 2017
are working in 22/50

U.S. States
and Washington, D.C.

UBE

Washburn Law is in one of 33 jurisdictions that have adopted the transferable Uniform Bar Exam.

Washburn Law graduates have

32.4%

less debt upon graduation than the national average for law schools.

*Class of 2017

WASHBURN UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF LAW