

WASHBURN LAW SCHOOL
CRIMINAL LAW (A) SECTION
READING ASSIGNMENTS FOR FIRST TWO CLASSES
PROF. FRANCIS

Students in this course must access/register on the TWEN page for this course: Criminal Law – A Section; John Francis. Some readings for the first week are uploaded to the TWEN page.

First Class: August 27, 2019 - Foundation principles of the American Criminal Justice System; introduction to the “problem method.”

- Read and consider the questions in "Reading Excerpts for First Day of Class" (Uploaded to TWEN under the “Course Materials and Supplemental Readings tab on the left).

- Read Moskovitz and Dillard, Cases and Problems in Criminal Law, pp. 3-14; pp. 659-60.

Second Class: August 29, 2019 - Mental States/Mens Rea: Intent.

- Read and consider the questions in the “Reading Excerpts on Mens Rea and Intent -1” (Uploaded to TWEN under the “Course Materials and Supplemental Readings tab on the left).

- Read Moskovitz and Dillard, Cases and Problems in Criminal Law, pp. 15-18; pp. 660-63.