

Class Actions

The following alumni are those whose updates were reported to the school from April 12, 2019, to Oct. 31, 2019. Update your address at alumni@washburnlaw.edu and submit your news at washburnlaw.edu/alumni/classactions.

1952

The Hon. Robert J. Dole, Washington, D.C., received the Kansas Bar Association Courageous Attorney Award.

1969

Richard F. Hayse, Topeka, received the Kansas Bar Association Distinguished Service Award.

1971

Jan R. Pierce, Portland, Ore., clinical professor of law and director of the Low Income Taxpayer Clinic, Lewis & Clark Law School, is retiring this year after starting the LITC in 2000 and leading it for 19 years. Through the LITC, Pierce offered students opportunities that many lawyers never obtain during their careers, such as arguing before the 9th Circuit. Through those experiences, students gained the confidence of knowing they could practice law. Moreover, they learned that they could make a difference in the lives of clients.

1974

The Hon. Christel E. Marquardt, Topeka, received the Kansas Bar Association Christel Marquardt Trailblazer Award.

The Hon. Meryl D. Wilson, Manhattan, Kan., who has served as a district judge for more than 20 years, retired June 14. Wilson practiced law in Manhattan from 1974-97. During that time, he served on the Manhattan-Ogden school board. He began working as a district judge in the 21st Judicial District, which includes Riley and Clay counties. The Kansas Supreme Court appointed Wilson as chief judge in 2012.

1975

Terry E. Beck, Topeka, was recently reappointed by the Shawnee County commissioners to a second term on the Washburn University board of regents, to serve through June 30, 2023.

JoAn Hamilton Lindfors, Marquette, Kan., retired effective June 30, 2019, after nearly 45 years primarily in the criminal law practice. Lindfors started in October 1974 as a legal intern at the Shawnee County District Attorney's office. She was hired as the first female assistant district attorney when she graduated from Washburn Law School in 1975. Gov. Carlin appointed her to Kansas Parole Board in 1983-89. She was elected 51st representative in 1990, and then elected first female district attorney in Shawnee County in 1992 and again in 1996. After losing her third election for DA, Lindfors returned to her hometown of Lindsborg, Kansas, and practiced defense criminal law until retirement on June 30, 2019, at the Saline County Regional Public Defender's Office and appointed counsel for the Board of Indigents' Defense Services.

1976

Mark V. Beshears, Topeka, has been named the Kansas Department of Revenue chief of staff.

R.E. "Tuck" Duncan, Kansas City, Kan., retired Sept. 30 after serving more than 30 years on the bench in the 29th Judicial District. He was a juvenile court judge for two years and then a judge in the court's limited actions division. Since 1993, he has presided over cases in the criminal division.

The Hon. J. Thomas Marten, Wichita, received the Kansas Bar Association Distinguished Government Service Award.

1977

Michael C. Manning, Phoenix, Ariz., was recognized by Southwest Super

Lawyers as one of the Top 50 Lawyers in Arizona for 2019. In the April edition of AZ Business Magazine, Manning was one of the Top 100 Lawyers in Arizona for 2019.

Anthony A. Utter, Wichita, has moved to J.P. Weigand & Sons as a vice president and commercial general manager. Utter created Utter Commercial Real Estate Inc. 15 years ago, and before that was vice president in charge of leasing and sales transactions for Transamerican Management Company. Utter was also property manager and leasing agent for a year with Builders Inc., a Garvey Enterprises subsidiary.

1978

S. Lucky DeFries, Topeka, has been recognized in the 26th edition of The Best Lawyers in America 2020 Edition for both litigation and controversy-tax and tax law.

Randy Rathbun, Wichita, was inducted into the International Academy of Trial Lawyers, an honor limited to 500 lawyers around the world.

1979

Sally B. Shattuck, Ashland, Kan., received the Kansas Bar Association Pillars of the Community Award.

1980

The Hon. Lee A. Johnson, Caldwell, Kan., has retired after a nearly 20-year career on the appellate bench. Justice Johnson was placed on the Supreme Court in 2007 and previously served as a member of the Kansas Court of Appeals.

1981

Jeffrey E. King, Salina, Kan., has been selected to serve as workers compensation division director for the Kansas Department of Labor. King has been in private practice in Salina since March 1981 and has spent the last 28 years with Hampton & Royce L. C. King's practice primarily involved workers compensation cases. He also served on the Workers Compensation Advisory Council for several years. King has also been a fellow of The College of Workers Compensation Lawyers since 2010.

**Names in blue indicate Alumni Association members.*

1982

The Hon. Larry D. Hendricks, Topeka, received the Kansas Bar Association Outstanding Service Award.

1983

The Hon. James F. Quinn, Central Islip, N.Y., was re-elected to another 10-year term as a county court judge in Suffolk County, N.Y. He was also elected as president of the New York State County Court Judges Association and has been named as the supervising judge of all Suffolk County family courts.

1984

Laura L. Ice, Wichita, has been promoted to general counsel of Textron Financial Corporation. Laura has worked for TFC (formerly Cessna Finance Corporation) for 21 years, managing aircraft, golf, and turf equipment finance transactions worldwide. Prior to her work with TFC, Laura was a shareholder with the Wichita law firm, Adams & Jones, where she began her law practice immediately after graduation from law school. Laura is a former president of the Wichita Bar Association and of the Kansas Bar Foundation and serves on the Washburn University Alumni Association and Foundation board of trustees, as well as Washburn University School of Law Alumni Association Board of Governors.

1985

Natalie G. Haag, Topeka, is the 2018 recipient of Capitol Federal's highest recognition, the Henry A. Bubbs Distinguished Service Award. This award, named in honor of Capitol Federal's longtime chairman, is presented annually to an employee or officer who demonstrates the leadership qualities of the late Mr. Bubbs. An important requirement to earning the prestigious Henry A. Bubbs Award is community volunteerism.

Brenden J. Long, Topeka, was named general counsel at TFI Family Services Inc. He was previously vice president of law and performance improvement for TFI and the vice president of organizational integrity for Midland Care Connection Inc. Long also previously served as the Topeka city attorney and regulatory compliance attorney for Kansas Electric Cooperatives. As general counsel, Long will provide legal guidance and support to TFI staff on all matters affecting the organization. He will also oversee the quality, risk management, and legal services functions of the organization.

1986

Terri L. Savely, St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands, has relocated to Christiansted on St. Croix of the U. S. Virgin Islands where she serves as the career law clerk of Chief Judge Wilma Lewis of the District of the Virgin Islands. Savely worked for the Kansas Court of Appeals more than 20 years including serving as the director of central staff and associate counsel to the court.

Randall W. Schroer, Kansas City, Mo., is now the managing partner in the Overland Park office for Chicago-based Hennessy & Roach, P.C.

The Hon. Phyllis K. Webster, El Dorado, Kan., was appointed by Kansas Gov. Laura Kelly to fill the term of retiring Magistrate Judge Ross McIlvain in the state's 13th judicial district. Webster has spent the last five years as a Butler County assistant attorney, where she prosecutes criminal and traffic cases. Webster has prior experience as a Butler County assistant attorney, in addition to over a decade of experience as a public defender to juveniles and guardian ad litem to abused and neglected children.

1987

Ronald D. Jung, Boulder, Colo., has been elected as the president of the Boulder County Bar Foundation and is the president-elect for the Boulder County Bar Association. He was elected last year to be a member of the Real Estate Section Council of the Colorado Bar Association.

1988

The Hon. Kyle A. Bryson, Tucson, Ariz., was named Judge of the Year by the Arizona Supreme Court.

1989

Chief Judge James Fleetwood, Wichita, who has been on the Sedgwick County bench more than 22 years and has been chief judge since 2009, has retired. Under his leadership, Sedgwick County was the first district court in the state to require electronic filing of court documents. Fleetwood also oversaw the development of a paperless court system, a website that serves as a portal to the courts, and a self-help center for people trying to access the legal system on their own.

Brian I. Leininger, Lenexa, Kan., was elected president of the Kansas Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers.

Marcos A. Mendoza, Austin, Texas, has accepted an offer from Quinipiac Law Review to publish his article "The Limits of Insurance as Governance: Professional Liability Coverage for Civil Rights Claims Against Public School Districts."

1990

Steve Coen, Andover, Kan., has retired after working 31 years at the Kansas Health Foundation, including 11 years as president and CEO. Before going to KHF, Steve served on Sen. Bob Dole's staff.

1991

Teresa L. Anderson, Overland Park, Kan., received the Legal Aid of Western Missouri Robert C. Welch Volunteer Attorney Project Award for her outstanding commitment to the delivery of pro bono legal services to the greater Kansas City metropolitan community. Anderson, a trial attorney and former criminal defense lawyer, currently handles family court appointments as well as family law preparation and disposition at Polsinelli. Anderson has served VAP as a pro bono attorney for 19 years and has been an advisory board member since 2018. She has served 26 different clients and committed 367 hours to the VAP in a variety of cases including guardianship, custody, civil suits, and landlord/tenant disputes.

The Hon. Laura E. Johnson-McNish, Marysville, Kan., has been appointed to fill a district court magistrate vacancy in the 22nd Judicial District. Johnson-McNish has spent the last eight years as the Marshall County attorney, where she prosecutes criminal, traffic, and child-in-need-of-care cases. She was first appointed county attorney in 2010 to fill an unexpired term and has since been elected to the office twice. Before working for Marshall County, Johnson-McNish was a deputy director of the Kansas Department of Revenue's Division of Property Valuation. Johnson-McNish also holds an active CPA certificate.

The Hon. Michael W. Riley, Hiawatha, Kan., has opened Michael W. Riley, Attorney at Law, LLC, a general practice law firm in Hiawatha, Kansas.

Kristine Savage-Lawless, Topeka, has been honored by the Best Lawyers in America 2020 Edition. She was honored in the sector of criminal defense: general practice and criminal defense: white-collar. Lawless has extensive experience in complex federal and state criminal cases, including appeals. Her primary practice now focuses on family law, and the Kansas Supreme Court has certified her as a mediator in domestic cases.

1992

Anson J. Flake, Enola, Pa., was appointed to the LINKBANK board of directors and the board of directors of its holding company, LINKBANCORP, Inc. Flake is the co-founder and former CEO of HydroWorx International, Inc., the Middletown, Pa. - based sports medicine and health care manufacturing company. During his tenure at HydroWorx, he served as vice president of legal and business affairs, responsible for intellectual property, business planning, and legal matters, and as chief executive officer from 1997 through 2016. Firmly committed to community service, his primary benevolence passion has been working with the Eagle and HydroEagle Foundations to provide tools to rehabilitate active duty U.S. military personnel and veterans and supporting PA Lyme Resource Network, a Lyme disease advocacy and educational organization. In addition, Flake teaches an entrepreneurship unit at Trinity

High School (Camp Hill, Pa.) and is a founding member of the NEXT Council, a mentorship program for business owners in transition.

Brandon Smith, Denver, has been hired by Summit Financial, as the director of the Integrated Planning Group. Smith will be responsible for leading the team that provides complex financial planning support for Summit Financial advisors and their clients. The Integrated Planning Group is a key component of the firm's newly introduced SummitVantage advisor platform.

1994

Leslie J. Kaufman, Topeka, has been promoted by Kansas Electric Cooperatives Inc. to vice president of government relations and legal counsel. Kaufman joined KEC in November 2017 as director of government relations and legal counsel after previously serving as president and CEO of the Kansas Cooperative Council, the statewide association representing all forms of cooperatives.

1995

R. Todd Ehlert, Saint Joseph, Mo., has joined Rouse Frets White Goss Gentile Rhodes, P.C.

Phillip D. Smith-Hanes, Salina, Kan., is now the Saline County administrator. Smith-Hanes has served as a county administrator since 2009, first in California, then in Ellis County for the past three and a half years. Smith-Hanes has also been serving as president of the Kansas Association of County Administrators and has spent decades serving in local government.

1996

Michelle E. Bowman, Washington, D.C., was confirmed by the United States Senate to serve a full 14-year term on the seven-member Federal Reserve board. Bowman has held a spot on the board designated for a community banker since November 2018, filling a vacancy on the panel that had a term ending on January 31. President Donald Trump renominated her for a full 14-year term. Before joining the Fed, Bowman served as state bank commissioner of Kansas and had been an executive of a community bank in the state.

1997

The Hon. Joel B. Jay, Chappell, Neb., was appointed to the county court of the Eleventh Judicial District. Jay was previously the Deuel County attorney. He also is the sole practitioner at Jay Law Office, where he handles cases including criminal, civil, and real estate transaction cases, and serves as the city attorney for the City of Chappell. Before his role as Deuel County attorney, Jay was an attorney at the Rork Law Office in Topeka.

Elaine M. Reddick, and Paula D. Langworthy, '06, Wichita, have formed Reddick Langworthy Family Law.

1998

Jeffrey W. Deane, Shawnee, Kan., has joined Lauber Municipal Law, LLC in Lee's Summit, Mo. after seven years with the law department of the City of Independence, Mo. Deane will continue his general municipal, government liability, and workers compensation practice areas in western Missouri and eastern Kansas.

Patricia A. Voth Blakenship, Wichita, partner at Foulston Siefkin LLP, has been named to lead a new Energy Industry Group for Geneva Group International, a global alliance of professional service firms. This Energy Industry Group will connect thought leaders from legal, accounting, and financial services GGI member firms to benefit the energy clients of those firms.

1999

Christina L. Ball, Lincoln, Neb., together with her law partners Andrew M. Loudon, Brett E. Ebert, and Kara E. Brostrom have founded Ball, Loudon, Ebert, & Brostrom, LLC, a boutique estate and business planning law firm in Lincoln.

Sharmyn K. Calhoun-Alley, Fort Worth,

Texas, has accepted the chief risk officer role for Lone Star Ag Credit. In that role she is a member of the executive management team and oversees the following areas of responsibility: enterprise risk management, compliance, business intelligence, quality control, and collateral risk management.

2000

The Hon. Jared E. Smith, Tampa, Fla., was appointed as a circuit judge for Hillsborough County's 13th Judicial Circuit. Smith has been a Hillsborough County judge since 2017. Before that, he was a partner at Rumberger, Kirk & Caldwell. Smith also served as a U.S. Air Force Judge Advocate General's corps captain.

2001

Andrew D. Smith, Las Vegas, Nev., is now of counsel at Winner & Sherrod.

2002

Anthony L. Springfield, Kansas City, Mo., will serve as Region VIII treasurer of the National Bar Association during 2019-20. Springfield will manage and oversee the financial affairs of the region, controlling and safeguarding its finances.

2003

Dustin J. Curry, Topeka, has joined DiPasquale Moore as the managing partner in their Topeka office. His practice is devoted to personal injury law.

Scott J. Schneider, Topeka, has joined Hinkle Law Firm LLC. Schneider's practice includes governmental relations and lobbying, and professional association representation and administration. His addition creates a new Topeka office for the firm and brings the number of Hinkle attorneys to 46. Previously, Scott had a private practice focused on governmental relations. He was formerly director of governmental affairs for Cox Communications and governmental relations director for the City of Wichita. He is a member of the Wichita and Kansas Bar Associations and serves as executive director of the Kansas Metro Business Healthcare Coalition. Scott will also represent the firm in numerous business-focused public policy and economic development entities.

2005

The Hon. Monique Centeno, Wichita, will fill the remaining term of retiring Judge James Fleetwood in the 18th Judicial District. That term has just over a year remaining and the judicial seat will be on the November 2020 election ballot.

Todd Hiatt, Topeka, has been promoted to litigation counsel at Kansas State Board of Healing Arts.

The Hon. Jane A. Sieve Wilson, Kansas City, Kan., was appointed to fill the term of retiring Wyandotte County Chief Judge Wayne Lampson. Wilson has spent the last five years as an assistant attorney with the Unified Government of Wyandotte County/Kansas City, Kan., where she handles various legal issues affecting county management, the county jail, the Sheriff's Department, and labor relations. Before working for the Unified Government, Wilson was a trial attorney with Liberty Mutual, and spent almost four years in private practice at the firms of McAnany, Van Cleave & Phillips, P.A., and Lathrop Gage LLP. Wilson has also served as a municipal judge pro tempore. In 2018, Wilson was the runner-up in the primary election for the Division 5 district court judge position.

2006

Jake T. Henry III, Baton Rouge, La., is the new assistant dean of Student Affairs at Louisiana State University Paul M. Herbert Law Center. Henry has spent the past eight years as LSU Law director of admissions. In his new role, Henry will administer the Law Center's interactions with its students, focusing on the academic, intellectual, psychological, and personal aspects of student life at LSU Law. Additionally, he will work closely with all other administrators to ensure that students experience a supportive, inclusive, and successful legal education.

Paula D. Langworthy, and Elaine M. Reddick, '97, Wichita, have formed Reddick Langworthy Family Law.

2007

Richard C. Stevens, Emporia, Kan., is now with BLI Rentals LLC.

John Paul D. Washburn, Topeka, received the Topeka Bar Association Outstanding Young Lawyer Award. Along with the work he does through the TBA, John Paul is an active member of the KBA, serving on the Family Law Section executive committee and the Young Lawyers Section board. John Paul is active in the community serving on the TFI VEC advisory committee, leading a high school youth group, and coaching youth sports. In addition to being recognized twice by the KBA for his pro bono service, in 2016, he was selected by the Jayhawk Area Council as one of Greater Topeka's Top 20 under 40 professionals.

2008

Patrick A. Turner, Wichita, has joined DeVaughn James Injury Lawyers.

2009

Wesley A. Ashton, Fayetteville, Ark., has been appointed to vice president of operations for Black Hills Energy in Arkansas. In his new role, Ashton is responsible for all aspects of managing operations for Black Hills Energy in Arkansas. Black Hills Energy serves 172,000 customers in 104 Arkansas communities including Bentonville, Blytheville, Fayetteville, Harrison, Ozark, Rogers, and Springdale.

Timothy M. Belsan, Alexandria, Va., was awarded the U.S. Department of Justice Civil Division's Special Commendation Award.

Matthew W. Bish, Wichita, was named to the 40 Under 40 list by the Wichita Business Journal.

Danielle M. Hall, Topeka, was one of seven Topeka women honored during this year's Women of Influence Awards hosted by GO Topeka's Entrepreneurial and Minority Business Development program. Hall received the Distinguished Mentor Award.

Kimberly M. Lynch, Topeka, has been named commissioner of the State Hospital Commission. Lynch began her more than 10 years of state service in 2009 with the Kansas Attorney General's Civil Litigation Division. She joined Kansas Department of Aging and Disability Services in 2012 and was promoted to chief litigation attorney, then senior counsel, before being named chief counsel in 2017.

Amber R. Smith, Topeka, fills a new fulltime position in the Office of Judicial Administration as deputy judicial administrator. She will assist Judicial Administrator Nancy Dixon in managing, organizing, developing, and implementing the office. Amber will provide leadership for programs and special projects throughout the court and will assist with implementing organization changes, policies, and procedure.

2010

Vo-Laria N. Brooks, Charlottesville, Va., is the Director, Domestic Operations, at The Judge Advocate General's Legal Center and School, Center for Law and Military Operations.

Ryan K. Meyer, Wichita, has been appointed to the Federal Bench-Bar Committee.

Christopher "C.J." Velez, Syracuse, Kan., was appointed as district magistrate judge for Hamilton County. Velez worked in child support enforcement for Young Williams, and has been in private practice since 2013, in which he specialized in family law and estate planning.

2011

Ashley D. Comeau, Hays, Kan., has joined Jeter Turner Sook Baxter, LLP. in an of counsel capacity. Her practice will encompass a broad range of civil matters, including estate planning and elder law, to guide the firm's business and individual clients.

Samuel R. Foreman, Wichita, has opened a solo practice, Foreman Law. Foreman had previously been with Fleeson, Gooing, Coulson & Kitch LLC for nearly three years. He had been with Klenda Austerman LLC prior to that. Foreman is a former Wichita Business Journal 40 Under 40 honoree.

Levi Morris, Great Bend, Kan., was appointed as the new Barton County attorney.

Shawn P. Yancy, Topeka, was named deputy director of unemployment insurance and chief of the Office of Appeals for the Kansas Department of Labor. He also began a term as secretary for the board of National High School Mock Trial Championship from May 2019 through May 2020, with which he has been an elected at-large member since 2015.

2012

Whitney L. Casement, Topeka, was named a Jayhawk Area Council of Boy Scouts of America Top 20 Under 40 award recipient. The honorees this year were selected from more than 230 nominations and more than 100 applications submitted to a selection committee consisting of more than 20 community members.

Jennifer M. Cocking, Topeka, vice president and associate general counsel for Capitol Federal Savings Bank was elected president-elect of the Women Attorneys Association of Topeka at the organization's annual meeting on June 26.

Dustin Crook, Shawnee, Kan. and Caleb Biesterveld, '12, Olathe, Kan., relocated their law firm Biesterveld & Crook, LLC from Olathe, Kan., to Overland Park, Kan. The law firm represents plaintiffs in personal injury, consumer, and employment cases as well as companies involved in business disputes.

Joshua A. Decker, Olathe, Kan., has joined Spencer Fane's estate planning group as of counsel in the firm's Overland Park, Kansas, and Kansas City office. In Decker's practice, he advises individuals and families on various aspects of estate planning and trust and estate administration.

Matthew Z. Hudson, Denver, Colo., has started a new position as program specialist at U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Children's Bureau.

Matthew D. Quandt, Omaha, Neb., has joined the Erickson Sedstrom as an associate with a practice in litigation. Before joining E|S, Matt worked in Kansas City where he gained ample litigation and trial experience in state and federal courts. His practice concentrates on litigation, including catastrophic injury and wrongful death, trucking and transportation, construction defect, employment, product liability, and professional liability, including engineers and architects.

Nicole M. Revenaugh, Topeka, was one of seven Topeka women honored during this year's Women of Influence Awards hosted by GO Topeka's Entrepreneurial and Minority Business Development program. Revenaugh received the Rising Star Award. Revenaugh is an equity partner in a new minority-owned law firm in Topeka. She also served as co-campaign manager for Mayor Michelle De La Isla's campaign.

Sarah E. Tadtman, Lenexa, Kan., is now counsel at Cboe Global Markets.

2013

Lyndie M. Carter, San Diego, Calif., is now an assistant United States attorney for the U.S. Attorney's Office Southern District of California.

2014

Kelsey R. Floyd, Wichita, is now with the Sedgwick County District Attorney's Office.

Jacqueline "Jaci" Kelly, Wichita, was named a Wichita Business Journal 40 under 40 award recipient.

Robert J. Moody, Wichita, received the Kansas Bar Association Diversity Award.

Jennifer L. Ouellette, Topeka, is now a staff attorney for the Kansas Insurance Department.

Bo Turney, Topeka, was named a Jayhawk Area Council of Boy Scouts of America Top 20 Under 40 award recipient. The honorees this year were selected from more than 230 nominations and more than 100 applications submitted to a selection committee consisting of more than 20 community members.

2015

Jessica L. Conrow, Topeka, has been promoted to senior legal counsel at Kansas Department for Aging and Disability Services.

Kevin B. Coombs, Spanish Fork, Utah, is now in-house counsel at United Energy Workers Healthcare, Corp.

Kristina J. Crawford, Topeka, is now a trust officer at Kaw Valley Bank.

Candice Y. Farha, Wichita, has joined Lewis, Brisbois, Bisgaard & Smith LLP.

Courtney L. Kelley, Denver, Colo., has relocated from the Tulsa, Okla., office to the Denver office of Hall, Estill.

2016

Joe Pilgrim, Kansas City, Mo., has joined Alspaugh Family Law.

2017

Joseph A. Dempewolf, Wichita, is an associate attorney in the litigation section of Klenda Austerman, LLC.

Lisa L. Martin, Kansas City, Mo., is now with Constangy Brooks Smith Prophete LLP.

Ethan M. McInteer, Wichita, has joined Klenda Austerman. McInteer commits a majority of his law practice in Wichita to aviation-related matters, particularly those in the way of finance and regulatory compliance.

Lauren N. Wright, Wichita, has joined Klenda Austerman, LLC. She was previously with the Kansas Corporation Commission.

2018

Justin L. Crawford, Joplin, Mo., is now the Joplin School District's director of educational support and human resources. Crawford previously worked for the district in various capacities and has specialized in dropout prevention and technology integration.

Samantha J. Leeds, Austin, Texas, is an associate at Venero Law, PLLC.

2019

Dominic D. Cavicchia, Manhattan, Kan., is an associate at Graber & Johnson Law Group, LLC. His practice will focus on estate planning, tax law, and Medicaid planning.

John M. Glamann, Wichita, is now with the Kansas Corporation Commission.

Adam P. Huser, Wichita, has joined Arn, Mullins, Unruh, Kuhn & Willson, LLP.

Audrey D. Koehler, Wichita, has joined Fleeson, Gooing, Coulson & Kitch, L.L.C.

Jeremy E. Koehler, Wichita, has joined Foulston.

Keegan M. McElroy, Topeka, was recognized by CASA of Shawnee County as CASA Rookie of the Year.

Allison A. Zerbe, Topeka, has been promoted to associate attorney and a human resources adviser at HR Partners. Zerbe clerked for John R. Dietrick, '84, during her final year of law school and served as a human resources adviser for HR Partners.

