ACADEMIC YEAR 2023-24 COURSE DETAILS AND ADVICE

FACULTY UPDATES

Professor Amy Westbrook will be on sabbatical spring 2024.

COURSE ANNOUNCEMENTS

Law Clinic Required Orientation: Orientation for all students enrolled in Law Clinic for the Spring 2024 semester will be Friday, January 21, 2024, from 1:00-4:00 p.m. in Room TBD. Please mark your calendar if you plan to take clinic in the Spring.

The Fundamentals of Oral Arguments name has changed to Advanced Oral Arguments.

UPPER-LEVEL REQUIRED COURSES

(offered fall and spring)

Civil Procedure II
Constitutional Law II
Criminal Procedure I
Evidence
Professional Responsibility

One Perspectives on Law course
Six credit hours of Skills courses
Upper-Level Oral Requirement
Upper-Level Writing Requirement

See the chart on page 4 of this document for a list of which courses satisfy these requirements.

UPPER-LEVEL ELECTIVE CURRICULUM

Recommended Foundation Courses – The faculty strongly encourages enrollment in the following foundation courses. These courses are foundations for other advanced electives and are considered part of the core of a well-rounded legal education. Students are urged to enroll in these electives, along with the required courses in the second year of law study. Enrolling in these courses in the second year will not only lay the foundation for more advanced courses in the third year, but also result in fewer conflicts in scheduling classes and exams in both the second and third years.

Administrative Law (Fall)
Business Associations (Fall)
Commercial Law
Decedents' Estates and Trusts (Fall)
Family Law (Fall & Summer)

Pretrial Advocacy – Civil (Fall)
Pretrial Advocacy – Criminal (Spring)
Public International Law (Fall)
Real Estate Transactions (Fall)
Taxation of Individual Income (Fall)

Uniform Bar Subjects – The following are the non-1L subjects that are tested on the Uniform Bar Exam (UBE) or otherwise will help you prepare for the exam. This information is provided for your convenience only. It is not intended to suggest that you should feel compelled to take all these classes. If you are contemplating taking a bar exam in another state, you should contact our Professional Development Office for information about subjects tested on that exam and for information about additional requirements that state may impose on bar applicants.

Business Associations (Fall)	Decedents' Estates and Trusts (Fall)
Civil Procedure II (Fall & Spring)	Evidence (Fall & Spring)
Commercial Law	Family Law (Fall & Summer)
Conflict of Laws (Spring)	Multistate Legal Analysis (Fall & Spring)
Constitutional Law II (Fall Spring & Summer)	Professional Responsibility (Fall & Spring)
Criminal Procedure I (Fall Spring & Summer)	Real Estate Transactions (Fall)
Criminal Procedure II (Fall & Spring)	Secured Transactions (Spring)

ADDITIONAL CONSIDERATIONS

Specific Courses – The following additional courses are not as universally considered a part of the core curriculum, but they are nevertheless important classes for many students for the reasons described below. They are also commonly tested on state bar examinations. Thus, while these are not classes that all students would typically take, they are classes to which students should give careful consideration in planning their upper-level curriculum.

- Conflict of Laws – The heart of the Conflicts class is the problem of choosing the law to apply to a transaction or occurrence that crosses state lines. For students who may engage in a practice representing clients involved in activities on a multi-state or multinational basis, Conflict of Laws can be a very important class.
- Remedies - Although the Remedies class looks at legal, equitable, and restitutionary remedies, the most important reason to take the class is that it is the only opportunity in law school to obtain a broad exposure to equity practice and the underlying doctrines of equity that apply to equitable remedies such as injunctions and specific performance. Knowledge of Remedies is important in all areas of practice.

Limited Enrollment and Prerequisites – Other factors students should consider in course selection include whether a desired course has limited enrollment or requires a prerequisite course or has limited enrollment. Courses with limited enrollment or prerequisites are listed below:

Adv. Intellectual Property Sem	16	Federal Indian Law	16
Advanced Legal Research	16	Gender, Sexuality, and the Law	20
Advanced Oral Arguments	16	Interviewing and Counseling	16

Clinic: Transactional	5	SLR: Statutory/Reg	20
Criminal Appeal Advocacy	5	Transactional Drafting	15
E-Discovery	14	VITA and Compliance	11

Multiple Assessment Courses – Students who have a GPA under 2.80* after their first two semesters of law school will be required to take two Multiple Assessment Courses as soon as practicable, one of which must be Multistate Legal Analysis. Multiple Assessment Courses are foundation courses that are open to all students, which include exercises, quizzes, or other activities that are designed to provide students, and the faculty members teaching the courses, opportunities for feedback throughout the semester.

Business Associations (Fall)	Law in Context (Fall & Spring)
Civil Procedure II (Fall& Spring)	Multistate Legal Analysis (Fall & Spring)
Decedents' Estates and Trusts (Fall)	Remedies (Spring)

*In fall 2023, this number changed from 2.60 to 2.80.

Distance Education Courses – Courses offered online asynchronously or online synchronously (via zoom, for example) will count toward the maximum number of distance education credits that students may take under ABA and Washburn Law's academic policies. Students enrolled in Third Year Anywhere will have enrollment priority for these distance ed courses.

E-Discovery (Spring)	Lawyering Competencies I (Fall & Spring)
