

Law Student Pro Bono Pledge

I recognize the professional obligation of lawyers to provide law-related service to the community and pledge to provide ____ hours of law-related pro bono work during my enrollment at Washburn University School of Law.

I understand that any Pro Bono Service I complete is a generous contribution to the community. I further understand that if I complete 50 hours* of Pro Bono Service during my tenure at Washburn Law, I will be recognized in the graduation bulletin and will be awarded Pro Bono Honors. I understand that if I complete 100 hours* of Pro Bono Service during my tenure at Washburn Law, I will be recognized in the graduation bulletin and will be awarded Distinguished Pro Bono Honors.

I pledge to conduct myself in a professional manner at all times and to honor the commitments I make to supervisors and any clients with whom I may interact.

I pledge to accurately and timely report my Pro Bono Service hours.

I pledge to read the Pro Bono Program Handbook, to become familiar with the provisions therein, and to ask clarifying questions of the Director of Pro Bono.
